IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Beautiful Honor Event.

Most artistic in all of its appointments is Mrs. C. H. Blaney's informal afternoon at Miss Kathleen Whitefield, a popular bride-elect, at 2:30 o'clock at the Terrell apartments.

The pink and white color motif is effectively carried out in all of the details. In the living room the green tones of the furnishings make a charming background for the pink hydrangeas and pink and white carnations that are used in the decoration.

In the dining-room the table is a symphony in pink and white. The lace centerpiece and lace mats are over pink. A basket tied with pink tulle and filled with pink and white carnations, is effectively arranged on a reflector surrounded by a mass of pink and white sweet peas. The table is lighted by pink candles, pink shades. The delicious salad and lace courses emphasize the pink and white motif. In the tea and cake the cupid and heart idea is appropriately brought out.

Two clever contests are features of the afternoon's pleasure, a Shakespearean romance and a flower contest. Miniature flower pots of pink and white sweet peas, daintily tied up in pink and white ribbon are souvenirs of the contest. Miss Whitefield was presented with a pretty guest of honor souvenir.

Mrs. Blaney's guests are limited to members of the Trimble club, the Sewing Bee and their out-of-town visitors and include: Miss Kathleen Whitefield, Miss Blanche Hill's, Miss Lincoln, of Lapeer, Mich.; Miss Hilderton, of Carthage, Mo.; Miss Martha Carroll, of Nashville; Miss Alice Carroll, of Nashville; Mrs. Vincent Salvo, Mrs. Hubbard Wells, Mrs. H. B. Sewall, Mrs. James Utterback, Mrs. Harry McElwaine.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Payne Grimes and Mr. Edward Sprigg Crume, which takes place at the Presbyterian church next Thursday evening, in Elizabethtown, is of unusual interest, especially so here, where Miss Grimes has been an attractive visitor and will have a Paducah girl for one of her maids. The following is from the Elizabethtown News:

"The bridesmaids, who form a bevy of most attractive girls, are to be: Misses Ella Sall and Louise Mitchell, of Owensboro; Martha Wallace Jones, Kansas City, Mo.; Catherine Quigley, of Paducah; Mary Belle Hobson, of Frankfort; and Emily Payne, of this city. Miss Mary Rose Finn is to be the maid of honor."

"Mr. Crume's best man will be Mr. Phillip Montgomery, of Pineville, Ky., and following are the groomsmen: Mr. Oscar Fryrear, Mr. Robert J. Miesner and Mr. Charles H. Mooman, of Louisville; Mr. George Smith, of Glendale; Mr. Damon Cooper and Mr. Owen Fryrear, of this city."

"Misses Mildred Ellen Montgomery, of this city, and Emily Marriott, of Nicholasville, Ky., will be ribbon girls."

"The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. L. O. Spencer, and Mrs. Joseph T. Creap will preside at the organ."

"After the wedding Mrs. J. S. Grimes, the mother of the bride, will give a handsome reception at the home of her parents, Col. and Mrs. James B. Payne. A large number of guests have been invited and the beautiful Payne home, which has been the scene of so many enjoyable social functions, will present a spectacle of dazzling brilliancy."

"Quite a number of entertainments are to be given this week in honor of the bride-elect."

"Mrs. A. L. Cox will entertain this afternoon at her pretty country home, 'The Willows,' with a garden party."

A WIDOW'S SUFFERINGS

Mrs. L. R. Lowe Writes of Her Sufferings and Tells How She Finally Obtained Relief.

Tabor, Okla.—"I am a widow, with five small children to care for," writes Mrs. L. R. Lowe, of this place, "and I was taken down so bad that for three whole months I was unable to get out of my bed. Life was hardly worth living. I felt like my back would come to pieces."

Nothing I tried did me any good, until I took Cardui. I began to feel a change right away, and was soon doing my work every day. Words can't praise your medicine too highly. It has saved my life."

Dark despair often assails women who suffer continually from the diseases that affect their sex. After trying doctors and medicines in vain, they feel like giving up.

Better try Cardui, for it has relieved and cured thousands, when all else had failed. Cardui is a perfectly harmless, gentle remedy, with no dangerous after-effects whatever, therefore good for young and old.

As a woman's tonic, there is nothing in the drug store like it.

As a medicinal remedy, for women's ills, it has no equal.

Try it.

Pretty Linen Shower for Bride-Elect.

Mrs. George C. Wallace was the hostess at a prettily appointed linen shower yesterday afternoon, in compliment to Miss Kathleen Whitefield, a bride of the week. It was an informal occasion with a limited number of the friends of Miss Whitefield present.

The Wallace home, on North Ninth street, was most attractive with a profusion of spring flowers. The Crimson Rambler roses and vines were used with charming effect in the reception hall and library. The punch table was a bower of red roses. In the dining-room the white and green color tones were prettily carried out. Bride roses and ferns artistically arranged in a gold basket was the beautiful centerpiece for the table. The ices, cakes and mints were in white and green.

The basket of linen gifts for the bride-elect was prettily decorated in white and tied with white ribbon. Master Lem Ogilvie and little Miss Helen Pulliam presented it to Miss Whitefield. Many dainty and useful gifts of linen and embroidery were presented.
